WBAI DEC. '69

"I highly recommend this picture to anyone who is interested in man." —Dr. Erich Fromm

"This film is about nothing less than the life force—and most other evidence notwithstanding—'Other Voices' reaffirms its existence." —Nat Hentoff

"'Other Voices' is a powerfully affecting document, which pictures the infinite patience, the iron will of true compassion, in dealing with the torments that beset many of us." —Harold Clurman

"'Other Voices' is about many things. It is about the Delaware Valley Mental Health Foundation which has developed a unique way of successfully treating the mentally ill. It is about Medical Director Albert M. Honig, who believes neither in hospitals nor hopelessness. It is about five young patients and a dedicated staff who struggle through terror, failure, hope, love and victory." —Mary W. Ellis
Executive Producer

OTHER VOICES

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED to the world premiere of David Sawyer's feature documentary "Other Voices" on Monday, December 22 at the Carnegie Hall Cinema and to the premiere party the same night at WBAI's church. Mr. Sawyer and Dr. Albert M. Honig, Medical Director of the Delaware Valley Mental Health Foundation, will be special guests at this party.

There will be two screenings of "Other Voices"—at 8 and 11:30 p.m. The party will begin at 9:30 p.m. Admission to both the premiere and the party is $5, with all proceeds going to WBAI.

FOLIO NOTES

December 1969 Volume 10, Number 12

Financial Goals

To keep our head above water, to cover current operating expenses, WBAI needs to take in $35,000 this month. This represents 800 new subscriptions and the renewals of approximately 1,250 subs that will lapse this month. This won't get us out of debt; it may mean that salaries will be paid. (Some of us are considering making reservations for Christmas dinner at the Salvation Army). If you have money to shed, shed it now!

If you are renewing—or if you're changing your address—please use the coupon on page 16. It will help us to do the mechanical work involved more quickly. Daily reports on the state of our finances are given during the 5:45 Miscellany; weekly summaries of same are delivered by Manager Millspaugh on Report to the Listener, Tuesdays at 7:10 p.m.

December Art

Our cover was donated by Antonia Hatay, a young NY photographer who is a supporter of the station. By error, the cut from Krazy Kat used in last month's Folio was credited to King Features International; it should have been King Features Syndicate.

December Programming

On October 15 WBAI pre-empted regular programming to present 19 hours of Moratorium coverage; in November we pre-empted programs to broadcast several hours of Moratorium activities on the 13th and 14th and a full day from Washington on the 15th. We warn promise listeners that we plan to continue this kind of coverage as long as the war and the protest and WBAI continue.

This month our News and Public Affairs programming takes on a new shape. On weekdays we will broadcast—from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.—two hours of programs in this field, beginning at 6 with a Commentary, followed by an hour of News and 45 minutes of special Public Affairs programs. The hour-long News will begin with Paul Fisher's report of the day's events; this will last as long as events require, up to 45 minutes, and include reports from our Washington Bureau. The News will be followed by Press Critique, a critical look at news coverage by WBAI's reporters and guests from other media. At 7:15 we'll broadcast a new program, City, that will present a daily report on local issues. As a result of this emphasis on more extensive early evening reporting and muckraking, the Late News and War Summary will be condensed into 15 minutes at 10:45 p.m.

The broadcast days and times of many Commentaries and other regular programs have been changed this month; we suggest you check the lists on page 4 for the new times.

Along with the Highlights on page 5, you will find brief descriptions of a number of new programs—some daytime, some evening. We'd like to hear your opinions on them. We guarantee to read and consider your letters but probably won't be able to answer them. Address mail to Box P, WBAI, 359 East 62nd Street, New York, N.Y. 10021. We're going to try to open more time for experimental radio and the broadcasting of unanticipated events as they occur.

In December the Music Department proudly presents a long tribute to Duke Ellington, a talk about and music by Kaikhosru Shapurji Sorabji (remember, you heard it here first), Haydn's "Creation," Rimsky-Korsakov's first opera and two-fourths of the "Ring"—Das Rheingold and Siegfried broadcast for once in prime time. We also call your attention to our rather peculiar way of celebrating New Year's Eve with Max Neuhaus' Public Supply, a piece created by you the listener via telephone. Incidentally, Public Supply forms part of our big 10th anniversary Free Store Festival, which begins on December 20 and will continue straight through the month of January. It will be held in our church (359 East 62, between 1st and 2nd) and you are all invited to come.

The Drama and Literature Dept. is celebrating Christmas. This month they're presenting The Seven Poor Travelers, a Charles Dickens' Christmas story; Christmas Day at Kirkby Cottage, the Trollope story; Arthur Clarke's The Star; and Let Us by the Fire, a program of Christmas poems old and new. For trimmings, they recommended In Circles, the musical by Al Carmines based on a Gertrude Stein story, and An Evening of Verse—Americana, poetry related to the American dream.

Peace to us all.

FREE MUSIC STORE FREE FESTIVAL FREE FETE MUSIC FIESTA FREE MUSIC FESTA FESTSPIEL FREE MUSIC FREE STORE FESTIVAL

The 1969 Free Music Store Festspiel begins on Saturday, December 20, with a party party. It will be an old-fashioned Xmas party with apple-bobbing, wassailing, Yule logs and stuff. Not only will there be carols but they will be fantastic ancient Tudor carols accompanied by the Caecilian Chamber Players. You heard us. The Caecilian Chamber Players will also play Gabrieli and other suitable olde musik. What could be better?

Daniel Nagrin will come back to perform The Peloponnesian War, his mime/dance/theater/socio-politico-esthetic-philosophico multi-media piece for solo dancer with tape-and-electronic music by Eric Salzman and Archie Shepp. The piece drew the largest crowd we have ever had at the Free Music Store last year but, alas, not everyone could see well. The church has excellent sightlines—partly because it's much smaller. So we've scheduled several performances. Don't miss it.

Soul Rock from the Rock is back with a black group from Riker's Island. Last year three of the best players were rearrested for parole violations and never made the performance; they're back out and we should have an even better group this year. Sun., Dec. 28 with a kind of black rock jazz vespers.

The schedule for December:

Sat., Dec. 20
Gala Opening Party with the Caecilian Chamber Players (Bach, Gabrieli, Monteverdi, Mozart and Riegger).

Sun., Dec. 21
The Caecilian Symphony Orchestra, Edward Murry, conductor; Don Stewart, clarinet soloist. Music of Brahms, Hindemith and Tchaikovsky (yup!)

Mon., Dec. 22
Aeolian Chamber Players (After Benefit)

Tues., Dec. 23
The Peloponnesian War with Daniel Nagrin; tape and electronic music by Eric Salzman and Archie Shepp.

Wed., Dec. 24
Xmas respite

Thursday., Dec. 25
The Peloponnesian War

Fri., Dec. 26
Film Program

Sat., Dec. 27
The Peloponnesian War

Sun., Dec. 28
Soul Rock From the Rock black rock and jazz from Rikers Island.

Mon., Dec. 29
Chamber music, details to be announced.

Tues., Dec. 30
The Peloponnesian War

Wed., Dec. 31
Public Supply with Max Neuhaus; watch Max man the lines for his electronic listener participation phone-in piece and then quaff a cup with us to greet 1970.

Thurs., Jan. 1
The Peloponnesian War. Can you make it? Pull yourself together; The Peloponnesian War will be even more significant for 1970 than it was for 1969.
